Who is the service for?

We provide curb-to-curb transportation to Waterford residents who are sixty (60) years of age and older and to disabled adults.

Where can I go?

Our service area includes Waterford, East Lyme, Niantic, and New London. We take people to physician appointments, outpatient testing, (x-rays, lab tests, etc.), physical therapy, salon/barbershop, and errands.

Grocery shopping rides are available on Mondays.

Shopping and errand trips (other than grocery shopping) are available on some Thursdays at various locations in Waterford.

Friday service is for medical rides only.

When can I go?

Service is provided Monday through Friday 8:45 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. for routine, pre-scheduled appointments. The schedule may change due to inclement weather, staffing shortage, or mechanical problems.

There is no service on holidays.

What does it cost?

The service is provided free of charge.
