

Application for Connecticut Resident's Motor Vehicle Property Tax Exemption Application
Due to Membership in the Armed Forces of the United States

Members of the United States armed forces (including reserve components and the National Guard) are eligible to claim a property tax exemption for one motor vehicle under CGS §12-81(53). To do so, complete this form and submit it to the Assessor, not later than the thirty-first day of December next following the date the property tax on the vehicle described below is due. Failure to file by the deadline constitutes a waiver of the right to claim the property tax exemption under §12-81(53).
