FEATURED PROGRAMS:

Saturday, April 5, 10:00AM - 1:00PM

Community Volunteer Fair

April is National Volunteer Month! The library is hosting over 20 local organizations and service clubs. All ages are invited to join us between 10 am and 1 pm to learn more about volunteer opportunities for teens and adults. No registration required to attend. There will be free refreshments. Please join us to learn more about ways that you can help! Free and open to the public.

Monday, April 14 and Wednesday, April 16, 10:00AM – 11:30AM

Pollinator Garden Paver Decorating – 2 Sessions

All ages are welcome to join us to work in pairs or as family groups to decorate pavers with mosaic tiles to help us create the border for our newly expanded pollinator garden in the front of the library. All supplies will be provided. Program is free and open to the public. Library Trustee Eileen Boyce, along with community members, Susan & Charles Luxton will be our instructors. Please register for only one session. Registration is required.

Tuesday, April 15, 2:30PM - 4:30PM

GIANT Room Kickoff Event

For kids who dare to be kinder to our planet - the GIANT Room is coming to our library! Join us for an interactive and engaging workshop full of hands-on creative projects centered around Planet Earth. This workshop series is a great combination of hands-on creativity, engineering, arts, and crafts, focused on family engagement and fun!

All ages are welcome, no registration required. This GIANT Room opportunity is funded by the State of Connecticut and the Institute of Museum and Library Services under the provisions of the Library Services and Technology Act, administered by the Connecticut State Library.

Saturday, April 26, 11:00AM - 2:00PM

Jewelry Fundraiser Sale

Everyone is welcome to join us for a jewelry fundraiser sale. There will be a wide selection of items available at affordable prices. Find something special for someone in your life, to celebrate Mother's Day, or to just treat yourself! Cash or card accepted for payment. All items are those that have been donated to the library. All proceeds will go to support the Waterford Public Library!
